PRESENTS

HOSTAGE NEGOTIATIONS & CRISIS INTERVENTION PHASE I & II

Public Agency Training Council (PATC)

This training will orient the new negotiator to the nationally recognized fundamentals, principles, and response to police hostage and crisis negotiation through lecture, video, slides and scenario-based practical exercises.

Topics include the following: Required/Suggested Equipment, Fundamentals of Hostage Negotiations, Active Listening, Bunches of 5, Suicide, Situations Boards, Negotiation Operations Command Protocol, Third Party Intermediaries, Tactical Role of the Negotiator, Managing Demands and Stress Management.

Instructor: Brandon Pierpoint is a retired Sergeant Investigator with the Lubbock County Sheriff's Office. Brandon attended Baylor University and South Plains College, where he received an Associates Degree in Law enforcement Technology.

Brandon became involved in hostage negotiations in 2003 and has spear headed the push for more training within this team. He is a goal oriented officer who is never satisfied with his training and knowledge and strives for excellence. Brandon is currently the team leader of the Sheriff's Office Crisis Negotiations Team. In 2002 Brandon was bestowed with the life saving award for preventing an in-custody suicide attempt.

Brandon is a TCOLE instructor, Mental Health Peace Officer, Firearms Instructor, and holds a Master Peace Officer Certificate. As of 2007, Brandon was appointed as the new region six director of training and was elected as President of the Texas Association of Hostage Negotiators in 2015. Brandon served as an advisor on the board of directors until 2021.
